Talodi (3)

After the 6th June 2011 and a result of the SPLA attacks on some villages around Talodi town (Mandi and Angarto) the command of the government army instructed its troop to withdraw from where they are and also ordered the civilians to evacuate, some villages were totally evacuated (Al Gardod and Mafloua), some people remained in their villages which later on fall in to SPLA control (Mandi, Angarto, Kindirma, Al Salamat and Taboli) which suffered the government air bombardments, some people from these villages fled to Talodi and Om Dual village (16 kilometers east of Talodi) which had been evacuated later on. The displaced people had suffered from lack of shelter as they were denied to stay in IDPs camps, therefore they were accommodated by their relatives and other people in Talodi, they also suffered from the authorities' oppression due to suspicious that led to detention and possibly killing of people (from areas under control of SPLA where others remained). Below are some cases:

1) Name: Elnour Ghabash Nassir

Gender: Male

Age: 65 yeas

Occupation: Farmer, Paramount chief of Angarto village, former SAF solder retired on 2007

Date & place of detention: 2nd September 2011-Talodi (shifted to Abu Jibaiha on 24th June 2012)

Date of Release: 28th June 2012

Details:

Elnour fled to Om Dual from Angarto to be able to farm and work on the traditional gold mining (he manage to farm), he went to the Popular Defense Force (PDF) Headquarters in Talodi in responds to the government's call for all former solders to be armed (rejection to carry arms is a crime against the government), when arrived at the PDF quarters he was detained (2nd September 2011), since then they only started to interrogate him on February (as usual it was based on his relation with the SPLA and about who remained behind in Angarto, they asked him to bring his people who are left behind in the village, his answer was “I don’t have any authority on them” that made him to be in detention at the Army cells in Talodi in a very worse situation (mentioned on other reports, he was moved to Abu Jibaiha on 24th June 2012 where he enjoyed bathing for the first time since got detained, four days later he was released and instructed to leave South Kordofan.

2) Name: Hawit Al Kinani

Date of Release: 4th February 2012

Details:

18 days after his detention he asked “why they detained him?” then three days later they started to interrogate him and was accused of the follows:

- A journalist and a correspondent for Ajras Al Huriya News Paper and Radio Dabanga (his answer was he has got nothing to do with both institutions)
- Owning a postpaid mobile line through which he supplies the SPLM/A with military information (his answer was I never has a postpaid line)
- His rejection to the idea of shooting a UN airplane that was in a general conversation attended by Mr. L. A (An Officer in Reserve Forces) and H. K (one of the government security agents and a blood brother to a brigadier in the national security) that was the actual reason behind his detention but not the above allegations.

His second interrogation was on 3rd of February 2012 in Abu Jibaiha and he was released the following day.

Below are some names we confirmed their presents in the detention during the same period, those who are alive among them were released on different dates and most of them are out of Talodi now.
