On 10th October 2026, SPLA-N carried out attacks (strikes) on Kadogli town using heavy artillery gunfire. As a result, a mother with her two toddlers and another young child were killed.

On 10th October 2026, Sudan People Liberation Army-North (Elhelo faction) attacked Kadogli town with heavy artillery gunfire (bombs). In the process, one of the four bombs hit a civilian house within Um-Batah neighbourhood and killed a mother together with her three (3) children.

Below are the names of the deceased (same family);

- Mrs. Esraa Mutasim Khamees (mother, 30 years)
- Faiza Adam Arbab and Faisal Adam Arbab (twin babies of 9 months)
- Egbal Adam Arbab (girl, 3 years old)

Kadogli is the capital city of South Kordufan State. Um-Batah neighbourhood is at the south part of the town where a Sudan Armed Force (SAF) military base is nearby.

HUDO Centre is concerned about the safety of civilians in Sudan during this difficult period of fighting between SAF and TISIS (RSF & SPLA-N) and calls for the following:

- The SPLA-N (Elhelo faction) to respect and stop attacking civilians and their facilities (public infrastructure).
- The SPLA-N (Elhelo faction) to comply with Geneva convention protocols and consider protection of civilians.
