PRESS STATEMENT

TASIS DRONES STRIKE, KILLED FOUR WOMEN AND DESTROYED CIVILIAN ASSETS IN DAMAZIN, SUDAN

On 7th October 2026, TASIS carried out attacks (strikes) using drones in a civilian dominated area. The drones hit civilian houses, killed four females and destroyed civilian properties and caused widespread panic among civilians.

On 7th October 2026, the Sudan Founding Alliance (TASIS) launched drone strikes of not less than four drones attacked (hit) Damazin civilian suburb. One of the drones hit the state minister of finance house without causing casualties, while other one hit a civilian house near state minister of culture house that killed four women from one family, they are: Ms. Nahid Eljundi Yassin, Ms. Hanaa Eljundi Yassin, Ms. Masajid Jabir Idriss and Ms. Jumaya Elnour (their ages between 20 to 30 years old). Also, there was other drones caused partial damage on the Technical College in Damazin and some busses that parked at the Land Port of Damazin. This caused widespread fear and panic among the civilians.

Damazin is the main town in Blue Nile state. The deceased women are from one family among them two sisters (Nahid and Hanaa) and cousins.

Repeatedly since last month of September, the TASIS conducted drone strikes on Damazin town mostly targeting civilians' infrastructure, for instance; On 13th September 2026, carried out drone strikes in a civilian dominated area. The drones struck and destroyed petroleum facilities, shops, caused deaths and injuries among civilians.

TASIS in Blue Nile consist of Rapid Support Force (RSF) and Sudan People Liberation Army – North (SPLA-N) Elheo faction which led by Jouseph Tuka in Blue Nile

HUDO Centre is concerned about the safety of civilians in Sudan during this difficult period of fighting between SAF and TASIS and calls for the following:

- The TASIS to respect and stop attacking civilians and their facilities (public infrastructure).
- The TASIS to comply with Geneva convention protocols and consider protection of civilians.
